To Whom It May Concern,

Our decision to hire GeoStar to consult on various impending financial decisions has proven to be an incredibly wise decision as well as a financially sound one. Not only has GeoStar impacted decisions we knew were looming, they made us aware of numerous other financial commitments not yet under scrutiny and in turn was able to improve our financial position in those areas.

I, like many, have faith in my management team. I commend the work they've done. GeoStar seamlessly works with my team, filling the gaps or picking up the ball when other realities of running a business get in the way. I truly believe them to be part of the team at my company and look forward to continuing our relationship.

For that reason, I strongly urge your organization to consider a partnership with GeoStar.

Sincerely,

Joe Cilone
